The Rev. Walter W. Breiner Jr. of White Bear, Summit Hill, has been selected by the Summit Hill Memorial Day Parade Committee to lead the 2019 parade, Carbon County's largest tribute to America's servicemen and women, which will take place on Monday beginning at 11 a.m. at Ludlow Park.

Breiner will ring the old bell of the former Summit Hill High School, signaling the step off the line of march that will head west on Ludlow Street, around St. Joseph Catholic Church and proceed east for the full length of White Street.

The parade will follow the traditional memorial services that will begin at 10 a.m. in Ludlow Park.

Parade committee Chairman Thomas Vermillion said, "Walt has been a big part of the Summit Hill community for as long as I can remember. I grew up with his children, Donna and Wally, and he was always involved with the things they did. He was a member of our church, St. Paul's Lutheran, until he went on to be a pastor himself. He's dedicated to serving the community in many ways. He's a longtime member of the Legion and is well deserving of the honor. We're happy he accepted the unanimous nomination."
